PATCHWORK

For centuries, patchwork is formed by sewing together pieces of fabric into a larger design. Different patterns are built up with different fabric shapes. As time goes by, designs are shaped and it really requires great effort. Although it has a foreign name, we inherited this tradition from our grandmothers. It has also traditional names in our culture such as adına kırkyama, kırk pare or yamalı bohça. Compared to the past, it has been more popular these days. Come on girls, come to the creative patchwork workshop. You will not understand how time flies.
